

Breaking the Silence. Ending Teen Dating Violence.

🌷 Spring Forward with Awareness, Growth & Community 🌷

💬 A Message from the President - Terry Glass

As we move into the spring season, I find myself reflecting on growth — not just in nature, but in our mission.

Rianna's Voice continues to expand through our school presentations, community outreach, and meaningful partnerships. Each step forward helps ensure that more teens know the signs of unhealthy relationships, understand their worth, and know where to turn for support.

This month, we're building momentum — strengthening partnerships, revamping support services, and connecting with more people in our community. Thank you for standing with Rianna's Voice and helping us keep her light shining far and wide. 💜

Building Partnerships: United Way of the Greater Lehigh Valley

We are excited to share that Rianna's Voice has begun working with the United Way of the Greater Lehigh Valley. While we are still in the early stages, we have some strong collaborative ideas in development that we hope will come to fruition soon.

Keep an eye out for updates — this partnership is poised to help expand our reach and impact throughout the region.

Expanding Our Community Presence

As we head into spring, summer, and fall, you will begin seeing Rianna's Voice out and about even more.

If you have ideas for events where you'd like to see Rianna's Voice participate, please contact us at info@riannasvoice.org.

Strengthening Our Support Services

Behind the scenes, we are actively evaluating and revamping our support services to ensure they are structured, sustainable, and impactful for our youth.

Thank You

Thank you for supporting Rianna's Voice. Your continued involvement helps us educate, empower, and uplift teens and families in our community — one conversation at a time.
